- In October 2026, Congressman Ellzey and his Academy Advisory Board will review all packets. In November, personal interviews will be conducted. In December, Congressman Ellzey will submit his nominations to the military academies at which time candidates receiving a nomination will be notified.
- Please make sure you have fully completed all admissions requirements and remain in contact with the academy to check on the overall status of your potential appointment.
- While you need a nomination, I must remind you that my nomination does not guarantee your acceptance into the academy. Appointments are made by the admissions officers at the academy.
